

SHOW YOUR SUPPORT OF UBUD WRITERS & READERS FESTIVAL BY BECOMING A FRIEND OF THE FESTIVAL

About the Festival

Launched in 2003, Ubud Writers & Readers Festival is Southeast Asia's most celebrated literary and artistic event. Its mission is to create a world class festival that celebrates extraordinary stories, amplifies brave voices, and tackles global issues through open dialogue and cross-cultural exchange. The Festival is proud of its continuing success in bringing Indonesian and international writers and audiences together on the world stage.

With 200+ events held across 45+ venues, 200+ artists, authors, thinkers, activists and performers from an average of 30+ countries, the Festival's five-day program spans in-depth panel discussions, intimate special events, hands-on workshops, book launches, powerful after dark performances, films, a children's program and much more.

A not-for-profit initiative designed to enrich the lives of young Indonesians, the Festival is proud to present an average of 50% of its program completely free of charge.

About Yayasan Mudra Swari Saraswati

Ubud Writers & Readers Festival is the major annual initiative of Yayasan Mudra Swari Saraswati, a not-for-profit foundation with the mission of enriching the lives of young Indonesians through community-building arts and cultural programs.

Through Ubud Writers & Readers Festival, our Foundation promotes Ubud as an artistic and cultural hub, showcases Indonesia's artists, writers, thinkers and performers, and helps young Indonesians to reach their creative aspirations.

The mission of the Foundation and the sustainability of the Festival would not be possible without the support of patrons, donors, partners (organizations and individuals), and maybe you – as one of our Friends of the Festival.
